

'Roberts' Starts Run Next Month

Appearing as the lead in the El Camino College mid-winter play, "Mister Roberts," will be Cliff Potts, Manhattan Beach.

The play, scheduled to run Jan. 12, 13, 19 and 20, will feature Potts in the title role and will be composed of 21 student actors.

Other leading players in the "Mister Roberts" cast are John Leifhelm, Inglewood; Lee McLaughlin, Torrance; Dennis Morgan, El Segundo; Ron Murphy, Redondo Beach.

Doc, portrayed by Leifhelm, shows an ironic acceptance of things as he finds them.

Portraying the Captain, against whom the men of the ship wage war, is McLaughlin, a theater arts major.

The way is a personal adventure which has lost its glamour to Ensign Pulver, played by Morgan, who is a graduate of Inglewood and a second semester student at EC.

Others in the cast include Murphy, Dowdy; Jan Coleman, Stefanowski; Jerry Cole, Wiley; and Stephanie Smith, Ann Gerard, all from Redondo Beach; David Pritchard, Insignia; Vic Nastasia, Mannion, and Dennis Scholl, Chief Petty Officer Johnson, all from Inglewood.

Completing the cast are Steve Rinaldi, Lindstrom, Redondo; Craig Thompson,

Official Opening Celebrated at Frontier Realty

Official opening ceremonies were celebrated Friday evening at Frontier Realty, 1957 W. Carson, Torrance.

Owned by Delmar Lee Wright, the new office expands office space for the company. The present location includes two front offices and an assistant manager's office.

Milt Isbell is assistant manager. Others employed full time at Frontier's new location, are: Pete McCown, John Godbey, Ron Stamm, Rae Ross and Louise Rose. A second Frontier office is located at 24211 Hawthorne Ave., Waverly.

CHRISTMAS PACKAGE

CARE offers the biggest Christmas package of all. For just $1 an average of 25 pounds of surplus agricultural products may be sent to hungry refugee children.

DICK TURPIN, education editor of The Los Angeles Times—"This year probably is the last for the marginal or 'professional' student in college who goes into higher education but is not serious about earning passing grades."

Schlemmer, Torrance; Dale Hall, Gerhart, and Rick Crowell, shore officer, El Segundo; Paul Wilkening, military policeman, Manhattan Beach, and Mike Hoctor, shore patrolman, Torrance.

FRONTIER REALTY—Held opening ceremonies Friday evening. Although the office has been open some time, Friday marked the official opening of the new building. Owner D. L. Wright, above, has a staff of six full time employees working in the office at 1957 W. Carson St., Torrance.
